

The Arkleston Singers

have

SPACES FOR BASSES

We are seeking new basses to re-balance our sound.

Our current programme includes an eclectic mix of wonderful music from contemporary composers such as Morten Lauridsen, Paul Mealor and Ola Gjeilo plus American folk songs and a brand new commission from a young local composer.

That's just for our May annual concert!

We are a small, very friendly, SATB chamber choir
so your voice counts.

We meet on alternate Mondays in central Paisley, close to the train station and with car parking on site.

Why not come along for a night and try us out?
